Message from the President...

ATTENTION LANCASTER COUNTY CONSERVATIVES!

by Robert Kettering

The most important question in this falls election is this:

Will Lancaster County elect a democrat or a republican to represent them as their state senator in the 36th district? Last year, in March 2025, in a special election, democrat James Malone defeated republican Josh Parsons by 480 votes to be elected as the state senator in the 36th district!

480 votes is less than 1% of the total votes cast in this election!

These results were quite a surprise to many Lancaster county republicans, some who didn't bother to vote because they took the election for granted and thought that the republican would surely win. It was a reminder that every vote matters, even here in Lancaster County! Malone was the first Democrat to win a senate seat in Lancaster county in 130 years!

Now, in this falls election, on November 3rd 2026, republicans will have an opportunity to win back the seat. The republican candidate will be former State Representative Tom Jones, who defeated Jere Swarr (80% to 20%) in this springs primary election. Jones is a pro-life conservative, and a great candidate who will be a great state senator. ACTION fully supports Jones for the 36th senate seat in this election! Tom will be a strong voice in Harrisburg advancing the conservative principles that we believe in!

TOM JONES WILL BE THE GUEST SPEAKER AT OUR NEXT QUARTERLY BREAKFAST ON JULY 18th! PLAN TO ATTEND!

Please pray for Tom and his family and for a successful campaign as they serve us in this new endeavor.
