Well, the Christmas season is here and as the song says, it's the most wonderful time of the year. Indeed it's the most wonderful time because our focus shifts from the problems of this world, of which there are many, to the solution for the world, who of course is Jesus, God's gift to this world. He was sent to us, not to condemn us, but rather that through him the world might be saved. You might say that God sent Jesus to rescue us from the world we live in, and if ever there was a time that we needed rescued from this world, it now. From the woke philosophy that threatens our freedoms, to the gender confusion that's being promoted in our public schools, to the international stage where Israel is attacked and antisemitism abounds. Now more than ever, this world needs a savior!

Yes, 2024 promises to be quite an interesting year indeed including another "most important election of our lifetime" presidential election, which will give us an opportunity to change the direction that we've been going since President Biden took office.

So before the new year begins, take some time to enjoy this Christmas season. For God so loved this world, that he gave his only Son, so that whoever believes in him would not perish but would have eternal life. This is the hope and the promise of Christmas, Emmanuel, God with us. Indeed, Jesus living in us who always causes us to triumph! Have a very merry Christmas and a happy and blessed New Year!

"The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing."

Edmund Burke

Save the Date for Our Next Quarterly Breakfast on Saturday, April 13th. Our Speaker will be Karen England.

Karen England began her journey as a homeschooling mother with an unwavering curiosity to comprehend how and why our culture had changed. Her faith and concern lead her into citizen lobbying, advocacy, and volunteering for Concerned Women for America and Eagle Forum.

Now, 27 years later, as President of California-based Capitol Resource Institute, a public policy organization focusing on parental rights, religious freedom, education, marriage, and the issue of life, Karen is eager to provide you with effective steps for creating change at the local level.

With an impressive track record, Karen stands as an unwavering advocate against the sexualization of children and the presence of inappropriate content within educational settings. Karen's mission, through her visionary initiative, "Take Back the Classroom," (TakeBackTheClassroom.com) is to empower, encourage, and inspire you to take informed action toward initiating positive change.

With a wealth of expertise and unparalleled courage, Karen emerges as the go-to person whenever challenges arise as she fearlessly confronts district and/or governmental opposition.

Consider Karen your free political consultant as you learn from her years of successes and challenges as an activist and advocate for parents, children, and families.

Be sure to invite concerned parents and others who are interested in the information Karen will present regarding current education related issues.

“Christmas can be celebrated in the school room with pine trees, tinsel, and reindeers, but there must be no mention of the man whose birthday is being celebrated. One wonders how a teacher would answer if a student asked why it was called Christmas.”

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Isaiah 9:6-7 (New King James Version)

For unto us a Child is born,
Unto us a Son is given;
And the government will be upon His shoulder.
And His name will be called
Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Of the increase of His government and peace
There will be no end.
